TRAVELING EXHIBIT AVAILABLE

An architectural exhibit depicting a cross section of German-American Landmarks in Indiana will be traveling around the state for one year beginning October. Indiana's German-American architects include Bernard and Kurt Vonnegut, and the Bohlen family. Among the examples of famous landmarks there are the following: the Soldier's and Sailors' Monument, the Atheneum, both in Indianapolis; Saint Benedict Church in Terre Haute; New Harmony's Harmonist buildings; and the village of Oldenburg in Franklin County.

For information about this exhibit and its scheduling contact the State Museum (317) 232-1631.

CARSTENS VISIT

President Karl Carstens of the Federal Republic of Germany and Mrs. Carstens will be honored Tricentennial guests of the American government and people during a state visit, October 3-14.

Their U.S. tour will begin in Washington, where he will meet with President Reagan, who will give a state dinner in their honor.

Plans call for President Carstens to take part in several Tricentennial events in Philadelphia on October 6, including a University of Pennsylvania German-American conference, the opening of a major exhibit of German expressionist paintings, and a banquet hosted by the German-American Tricentennial Committee of Philadelphia.

Other cities on the proposed visit schedule are, St. Louis, El Paso, Dallas, Phoenix (from where they will visit the Grand Canyon), Seattle, Madison (Wisconsin), New York, and New Haven.

INDIANA DIRECTORY OF GERMAN HERITAGE

The State Tricentennial Commission would like to establish an "Indiana Directory of German Heritage". For this we need your help. Please, send us information on: 1) Hoosier buildings with historical German significance; 2) German festivals and events with locations and dates; 3) German clubs and organizations.

Historical Building(s)_________________________________________________________
Event(s)_______________________________________Date(s)_______________________
Organization(s)_________________________________________________________________
Address(es)____________________________________________________________________
Fundraising for Indiana Tricentennial Memorial
Send your tax deductible contribution to: Indiana Tricentennial Commission
Sarah Jane Holmes, Treasurer
500 W. Somerset Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46260
(317) 253-5007

A long list of Tricentennial German/English publications and mementos are available which range from titles such as: 1776-1976 Two Hundred Years of German-American Relations, by Thomas Piltz (Ed.) to bumper stickers, neckties, ashtrays, beer steins, and silver and gold medals.

From: NCSA Literatur,
R. 5, Box 175,
Nashville, IN 47448
(812) 988-2866

Reflections on a Heritage:
The German Americans in Southwestern Indiana, by Darrel Bigham, ($1.95)
From: ISUE Bookstore,
8600 University Blvd.
Evansville, IN 47712

Sturdy 15x22" Indiana Posters
black, blue, red and yellow on white ground with the Tricentennial emblem and the outline of Indiana, only 50 cents a piece from:
Lorra Schroeder
733 North College
Indianapolis, IN 46202
(317) 637-6001

Tricentennial Banners, 3'x6' with Concord, multicolored on white ground at $19.95 from:
Hilde Crisp
171 Carol Drive
Terre Haute, IN 47805
(812) 466-4486

For a first hand experience of German-American Heritage:
Visit Historic New Harmony or Historic Oldenburg!
Calendar of Events

Sept.29-Oct.1: Seymour - Oktoberfest

Sept.30-Oct.1: Fort Wayne - Oktoberfest, sponsored by Indiana-Purdue University Student Union Board & Memorial Coliseum, 4 p.m.

October 1: La Porte - German Dinner at St. John's Lutheran Church, School and Activities Bldg., 5:00 p.m.

Oct.1-Dec. 31: Bloomington - Exhibit: "German Pioneers of Indiana Industry". Exhibit of farm implements used by German settlers, including a Conestoga wagon; William Hammond Mathers Museum

Oct.1-31: Bloomington - Poster exhibit: "Germans to America: Three Hundred Years of Immigration"; Monroe County Library

October 1: Bloomington - Volkswalk which will cover 10 km (6.2 miles), sponsored by Y Walkers; Morgan-Monroe State Forest, Main Fire Tower, 7 a.m.

October 2: Bloomington - Bloomington Brass Band: "Salute to Octoberfest"; North Lawn of Monroe County Courthouse, 2 p.m.

Oct.3-7: Bloomington - Octoberfest Recital Series; Indiana University, School of Music, Recital Hall, 8:30 p.m.

Oct.4-March 9: Indianapolis - Exhibit: "The German-American Experience in Indiana". Display of artifacts representing Indiana's German-American community and its contribution to the State and Nation in religion, commerce and industry, social and cultural life, domestic life, and architecture; Great Hall of the Indiana State Library, 140 N. Senate St., 8:15 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, for information call (317)-232-3675

October 6: Lafayette - Banquet and Celebration: Presentation of Plaque to Mayor Riehle to be installed during planting of a Red Oak on Courthouse Square; sponsored by GBU and DANK at Best Western Inn

Oct.6-9: Huntingburg - Herbstfest: German Foods, Games, Rides, Bierstube, Races, Contests, Talent Show; On Thursday Tricentennial Observance with Germania Maennerchor, 7:30 p.m.

October 8: Evansville - Fall Festival Parade with "German Heritage" theme. Jasper and Germania Maennerchor will have floats, sponsored by West Side Nut Club
October 8: Fort Wayne - Octoberfest

October 8: Bloomington - Oktubafest Half-Time Show, IU Football Game; Memorial Stadium, 1 p.m.

October 8: Bloomington - Bloomington Brass Band "Debut" Concert, BHSS Auditorium, 8 p.m.

October 9: Bloomington - Oktubafest/Oktubafeast, life entertainment, traditional German food and libations, served by Bloomington's finest restaurants; sponsored by the City of Bloomington, downtown Municipal Parking Garage, College Ave. and 7th, 1:00 p.m.

October 9: Terre Haute - Open House at Oberlander Club, 2-4 p.m.

October 9: La Porte - Art Fair

Oct. 9-Nov. 6: Evansville - "Aspects of German-American contributions to the history of the region", five Sunday lectures; Evansville Museum, 1:30 p.m.

Oct. 10: Evansville - Lecture on the German Heritage in Evansville by Rev. Manfred Haas, Evansville Vanderburgh County Public Library, West Branch

Oct. 14: New Harmony - "German-American Utopians in Tricentennial Perspective" with Professor Guenter Moltmann, Hamburg University; sponsored by Goethe Institute Chicago and National Historic Communal Societies Conference

Oct. 16: La Porte - Showing of film "Where Luther Walked"

Oct. 19-21: Bloomington - Performances offered as part of a conference sponsored by the German Academic Exchange Service:
   Wednesday: Concert of German Music by the Indiana University Concert Orchestra, Brian Balkwill, conductor; I.U. Auditorium, 8 p.m.
   Thursday: Liederabend. Camilla Williams, soprano. Charles Webb, piano; I.U. Recital Hall, 8:30 p.m.
   Friday: Seventeenth-Century South German Mass. Performed by the Early Music Institute. Thomas Binkley, director; St. Mark's Methodist Church, 8 p.m.

   Reception on opening day, 4 to 7 p.m. Gallery talk by Professor Claus Clüver, Indiana University, 6 p.m.
Oct. 21-27: Bloomington - I.U. Theater T300, "The Underpants," a play by Carl Sternheim, daily 8 p.m.

Oct. 21-22: Bloomington - Indiana University Symposium: "Three Hundred Years of Germans in America":
Friday: Immigration and Religious Identity: "The Migration of German Redemptioners to North America, 1720-1800." Prof. Guenter Moltmann, University of Hamburg.
"German-Jewish Identity in Nineteenth-Century America." Professor Michael Meyer, Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati; Woodburn 009, 9-12 a.m.
Literature and the Academy: "Amerika, du hast es besser? Goethe's Views of America in a Different Light." Professor Peter Boerner, I. U.
"Rhetoric of Survival: The Germanist in America, 1900-1925." Professor Henry J. Schmidt, The Ohio State University; Lilly Library, 2-5 p.m.
Followed by a reception in the Lounge.

Saturday: Germans in Indiana: "German Immigration to Southeastern Indiana in the Early Nineteenth Century," with slides. Gary Stanton, I. U.
"Stenciled and Painted Wall Design in German Houses in Indiana," with slides. Professor Warren Roberts, I. U.; Woodburn 009, 9-12 a.m.
"Cultural Dimensions of German Communal Societies in the United States," with slides. Professor Donald Pitzer, ISUE; Woodburn 009, 2-4 p.m.

Oct. 22: Lafayette - Oktoberfest with Tricentennial Ceremonies, sponsored by GBU; Armory, 9th and Union Street

Oct. 23: Bloomington - "Restoration of the Old Dutch Church in Northwest Monroe County." Rod Figg, with slides. Lutheran service and choir; Old Dutch Community Church, 3 p.m.

Oct. 23: Bloomington - "Luther—What Made Him a Great Man of God", Rev. E. H. Zimmermann; University Lutheran Church: two services 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Oct. 30: Bloomington -"Sola Scriptura". Rev. LeRoy Buuck; University Lutheran Church: 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Oct. 30-Nov. 27: Evansville - Museum of Arts and Science: Exhibition on German Heritage in the Town Hall

Oct 31: Bloomington - "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari", Silent movie, Dennis James, organ; I. U. Auditorium, 8 p.m.
TRICENTENNIAL UPDATE

Oct.1-Dec. 31: Bloomington - Exhibit: "German Pioneers of Indiana Industry". Exhibit of farm implements used by German settlers, including a Conestoga wagon; William Hammond Mathers Museum

Oct.1-31: Bloomington - Poster exhibit: "Germans to America: Three Hundred Years of Immigration"; Monroe County Library

Oct.4-March 9: Indianapolis - Exhibit: "The German-American Experience in Indiana". Display of artifacts representing Indiana's German-American community and its contribution to the State and Nation in religion, commerce and industry, social and cultural life, domestic life, and architecture; Great Hall of the Indiana State Library, 140 N. Senate St., 8:15 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, for information call (317)-232-3675

Oct.9-Nov.6: Evansville - "Aspects of German-American contributions to the history of the region", five Sunday lectures; Evansville Museum, 1:30 p.m.

Oct.30-Nov.27: Evansville - Museum of Arts and Science: Exhibition on German Heritage in the Town Hall

Watch for exhibits, lectures, or other activities in your area. Find out what your local German Club is doing.

Why not have a Tricentennial exhibit for your school?

For a first hand experience of German-American Heritage:

Visit Historic New Harmony or Historic Oldenburg!

What the Schools are Doing: The Evansville Vanderburgh School Corporation is planning the following

a. Students exchanging letters with students in its Sister City of Osnabrück.

b. Study of the large number of streets in Evansville which carry German names.

c. Review of the telephone directory to reveal the large number of German names.
d. Having a "German Week" during the week of October 6 in the high schools

e. Emphasize German songs and dance in general music classes.

f. All City High School Choir to emphasize German songs in their musical selections.

g. Develop radio and television spots featuring German vocal music sung by school children and/or dances performed by school children.

h. Reitz Choir -- participate in the Germania Maennerchor Christmas events.

i. Study and reports of the work of German mathematicians like Leibnitz, Gauss, and Riemann.

j. Small German bands to provide background or program music for various activities.

k. Orchestral works selected from the German heritage.

Tricentennial German/English publications and mementos are available which range from titles such as: 1776-1976 Two Hundred Years of German-American Relations, to bumper stickers, neckties, ashtrays, beer steins, T-shirts, posters, silver and gold medals. From: NCSA Literatur, R. 5, Box 175, Nashville, IN 47448, (812) 988-2866 or 335-0679

Reflections on a Heritage: The German Americans in Southwestern Indiana, by Darrel Bigham, ($1.95) From: ISUE Bookstore, 8600 University Blvd., Evansville, IN 47712

Sturdy 15x22" Indiana Tricentennial Posters black, blue, red and yellow on white ground with the Tricentennial emblem and the outline of Indiana, only 50 cents a piece from: Lorra Schroeder, 733 North College, Indianapolis, IN 46202, (317) 637-6001

INDIANA DIRECTORY OF GERMAN HERITAGE

The State Tricentennial Commission would like to establish an "Indiana Directory of German Heritage". For this we need your help. Please, send us information on: 1) Hoosier buildings with historical German significance; 2) German festivals and events with locations and dates; 3) German clubs and organizations.

Historical Building(s) ____________________________________________

Event(s) ____________________________________________ Date(s) __________

Organization(s) ____________________________________________

Address(es) ____________________________________________

Send to: Ruth M. Reichmann, R. 5, Box 175, Nashville, IN 47448